Security Council

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism

Special event

The Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism will hold a special event on Monday, 14 September 2015, from 15:00 to 18:00, in Conference Room 11, to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the adoption by the Security Council of resolution 1624 (2005).

Security Council resolution 1624 (2005), adopted on 14 September 2005 at the level of Heads of State and Government on the occasion of the World Summit, addresses the threat posed by incitement to commit terrorist acts. Ten years after its adoption, the threat of incitement to commit terrorist acts remains a pressing issue, and the threat has evolved and increased in important ways. The special event will provide an opportunity for the wider membership to reflect upon the goals of resolution 1624 (2005) and progress achieved in the past 10 years, as well as the continued efforts of the international community to counter emerging terrorism challenges.

Immediately following the opening session, an interactive thematic discussion on the main elements of resolution 1624 will be co-chaired by the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom, and the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED), with presentations by experts from Governments, international organizations, and civil society.

The special event will be open to Member and Observer States, United Nations entities, intergovernmental organizations, specialized agencies, and non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, as well as members of the media accredited to the United Nations in New York. Related information is available by clicking here. The special event will be webcast.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered.

Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; Room S-0220).
